ARTIST PROFILE

Bachot Muna is a pianist, composer, singer-songwriter, arranger and music producer. His musical identity brings together jazz, blues, swing, groove and African influences. His work is driven by melody, rhythmic energy and a direct relationship with the audience - music designed to be both expressive and alive.

Over the course of an international career, Bachot has performed at festivals, theatres, hotels and prestigious events across Europe, Africa and North America. His stage experience includes the Montreal International Jazz Festival at Théâtre Maisonneuve, alongside a long history of concerts and high-profile performances.

JAZZ & DREAMS

Jazz & Dreams is Bachot Muna's signature artistic universe: a personal approach to jazz in which swing and blues meet expressive improvisation, lyrical piano writing and African character. Rather than treating jazz as a fixed style, the project uses it as a language - open, emotional, vibrant with rhythm and energy.

The repertoire includes original compositions such as Groovy Blues, Globe Trotter Blues and I'm Gonna Rock Your Night, alongside other pieces from his album Jazz & Dreams. The piano remains at the heart of the music: at times elegant and intimate, at others percussive, driving and celebratory.

FOR PRESENTERS & VENUES

Jazz & Dreams is conceived for concert halls, jazz festivals, cultural centres, theatres and luxury hospitality venues, as well as high-end private events, VIP receptions, weddings, galas and corporate events seeking an elegant, personalised musical experience led by an artist with a strong identity.

PRESS REVIEWS

RICHARD THÉRIEN

Canadian music critic Richard Thérien heard something distinctive in Bachot Muna's playing. On Groovy Blues, the hypnotic bass line caught his ear and recalled pianist Mal Waldron. On I'm Gonna Rock Your Night, he identified another side of Bachot's piano language: stride, ragtime and boogie-woogie in the left hand, with a blues-inflected right hand.

"A voice of his own."

DIONIZY PIĄTKOWSKI

Polish jazz critic and historian, and founder of Era Jazzu, Dionizy Piątkowski described Jazz & Dreams as a project in which Bachot Muna reaches for jazz feeling and expressive improvisation while retaining his traditional and ethnic inspirations.

His review highlights the swing, blues and jazz-piano character of the album and draws attention to tracks including Globe Trotter Blues, Madness Swing, Groovy Blues and Zapping Swing.

For Piątkowski, Jazz & Dreams opens interesting new horizons for Bachot Muna as a pianist and composer.
