THE DREAMS DIMENSION

Fluid, atmospheric ballads unfold like waves — inviting the listener to float, dream and travel through emotion. This dreamlike dimension complements the swing, blues and improvisation at the heart of Jazz & Dreams.

ARTIST PROFILE

Bachot Muna is a pianist, composer, singer-songwriter, arranger and music producer. His musical language is grounded in jazz, blues, swing, groove and improvisation. His work is driven by melody, rhythmic energy and a direct relationship with the audience — music designed to be both expressive and alive.

Bachot Muna's international career has taken him across Europe, Africa and North America, including an appearance at the Montreal International Jazz Festival at Théâtre Maisonneuve, Place des Arts.

JAZZ & DREAMS

At its core, Jazz & Dreams is jazz — personal, expressive and deeply rooted in improvisation, blues and swing. Beneath the surface, the faintest traces of Bachot Muna's African musical heritage may sometimes be sensed, fully absorbed into his own musical language. Jazz remains the centre: open, emotional and alive with rhythm and energy.

The repertoire includes original compositions such as Groovy Blues, Globe Trotter Blues and I'm Gonna Rock Your Night. The piano remains at the heart of the music: at times elegant and intimate, at others percussive, driving and celebratory.

PRESS REVIEWS

RICHARD THÉRIEN

Canadian music critic Richard Thérien heard something distinctive in Bachot Muna's playing. On Groovy Blues, the hypnotic bass line caught his ear and recalled pianist Mal Waldron. On I'm Gonna Rock Your Night, he identified another side of Bachot's piano language: stride, ragtime and boogie-woogie in the left hand, with a blues-inflected right hand.

"A voice of his own."

DIONIZY PIĄTKOWSKI

Polish jazz critic and historian, and founder of Era Jazzu, Dionizy Piątkowski described Jazz & Dreams as a project in which Bachot Muna reaches for jazz feeling and expressive improvisation while retaining his traditional and ethnic inspirations.

His review highlights the swing, blues and jazz-piano character of the album and draws attention to tracks including Globe Trotter Blues, Madness Swing, Groovy Blues and Zapping Swing.

For Piątkowski, Jazz & Dreams opens interesting new horizons for Bachot Muna as a pianist and composer.
